General

About Hotel

91 Athens Riviera, The Resort is a beach club resort on the Athenian Riviera in Athens, Greece. It operates in partnership with Domes and Grivalia Hospitality, and access is selective, with an emphasis on privacy and exclusivity. Accommodation takes the form of cabanas with private decks, set near the beachfront or within landscaped gardens. The beach is limited to 130 sunbeds. The resort also has a swimming pool with custom-designed Giorgio Armani loungers, the Barbarossa Athens restaurant, a tennis club, a fitness offering and the Soma Spa ‘The Finest’.

Accommodation

- The accommodation consists of cabanas designed for couples and families, each with a private deck. All cabanas have a super king-sized bed or a king-sized bed with additional single beds, and a bathroom with a walk-in shower. Several categories have a private plunge pool. Beds are dressed in 1,000 thread count linens. Each category is 43 sq. m with a 25 sq. m deck. Adapted cabanas are available in four categories, one of each. In adapted rooms the room door is 161 cm wide, and the balcony door and bathroom door are each 92 cm wide.

Dining

- Dining is centred on Barbarossa Athens, which serves breakfast, lunch and dinner. Beach and poolside refreshments and snacks come from the Barbarossa Beach and Pool Service. The main clubhouse and the tennis clubhouse offer lighter bites and fuller meals, and Breakpoint serves a sports-oriented menu at the tennis club. Room service is available.

Facilities & Services

- Facilities include a beach club, an outdoor pool, 21 plunge pools, tennis courts, indoor and outdoor fitness areas, a spa with a hair, nails and beauty section, shops and a Sunset Terrace for events. Services include butler service, laundry, a hairdresser, bike and car or scooter rental and a doctor on call. Wi-Fi is available in all suites, villas and public areas.

Location

- The resort is on the Athenian Riviera, between the city of Athens and the Aegean Sea. It serves as a base for visiting the archaeological sites of Athens, the lifestyle and shopping district of Glyfada, the thermal springs of Vouliagmeni Lake and the Temple of Poseidon, known for its sunsets.

Restaurants

Barbarossa Athens

- Barbarossa Athens is an upscale seafood and sushi restaurant led by Chef Dimitris Nikolis. Its dishes draw on Aegean cuisine and bring the flavours of the Barbarossa restaurant in Paros to the Athenian Riviera, with an emphasis on simplicity. The menu is complemented by a wine list and themed cocktails. The restaurant has a terrace and both smoking and non-smoking areas, and room service is available.
- Breakfast is served from 08:00 to 11:00 as an à la carte menu of cold and hot items. The all-day lunch and dinner menu runs from 12:00 to 24:00, with last orders at 23:00. On Sundays the restaurant is open from 12:00 to 22:00, with last orders at 21:30.
- The dress code is smart casual. Vegetarian and gluten-free options are available on request, and a kids’ menu is offered. Diet menus and toddler menus are not available.

Breakpoint

- Breakpoint is the food outlet at the tennis club. It serves a healthy sports menu that includes vegetable and fruit juices, protein poke bowls, sandwiches and light energy-boosting bites, designed around sports performance and recovery. It is open from 08:00 to 23:00, with last orders at 22:30. Domes guests can use the tennis club facilities for a supplement, and reservations are required.

Bars

Barbarossa Beach and Pool Service

- The Barbarossa Beach and Pool Service provides refreshments and snacks on the beach and by the pool from 10:00 to 18:30. It is also available to external guests, for a fee. The fee includes one umbrella, two sunbeds, towels and water.

Beach & Pools

Beach

- The beach is sandy. Sunbeds and umbrellas are complimentary for in-house guests, and mattresses and beach towels are provided free of charge. A beach bar is available. Private lockers are not available. The beach has a limit of 130 sunbeds. It closes for the winter period.

Pools

- The public outdoor pool is a freshwater pool of 436.01 sq. m with a depth of 1.5 m. It is not heated. It operates from 10:00 to 20:00 between April and October and is closed in winter. Poolside days feature custom-designed Giorgio Armani loungers, and changing rooms are available.
