Food & Beverage

- Olivina restaurant

The restaurant takes its name from the translucent green stone which the Etruscans, the ancient inhabitants of Tuscany, called the 'gem of the sun'. An allusion to the vineyards and olive groves that characterise the surrounding landscape and its centuries-old heritage. Olivina features a wine room, salumeria, coffee bar and bakery. Embark on a journey through a cornucopia of flavours and aromas.

- Il Rosmarino

Il Rosmarino steakhouse and pizzeria is an ode to the time-honoured tradition of homely Tuscan cooking. On the menu: succulent Chianina beef alla Fiorentina, wide ribbons of handmade pasta entwined with rich, velvety sauces that echo the changing seasons, and the crisp perfection of wood-fired pizzas.

- Country ClubHouse restaurant

Country ClubHouse restaurant is housed in the tastefully restored Poggionero farmhouse. It is the perfect haven to relax and recharge after a round of golf. The wine list is curated by our head sommelier with a range of national and international wines to mirror the quality of the food and the surrounding scenery.

- Ecrù Lounge Bar

At Ecrù Lounge Bar you can relish the dolce vita and enjoy an invigorating Italian espresso or a chic aperitivo along with snacks and light dishes. Or come and enjoy cocktails and live music with friends, laughter echoing into the starlit sky as you make lasting memories together.

- La Rocca restaurant

Castelfalfi's La Rocca restaurant is the perfect setting for private dining and events – a place where time dissolves as the castle walls murmur secrets of bygone times and you indulge in a fairytale feast for the senses. The restaurant is managed by chef Michele Rinaldi from Bergamo. A pupil of Italy's most famous chef, Gualtiero Marchesi, at La Rocca head chef Rinaldi offers traditional cuisine based on Mediterranean meat and fish.

- Giglio Blu

Enjoy a leisurely poolside lunch with friends and family as you take in the view of magnificent valleys framed by rows of centuries-old cypresses. The summer-infused menu includes salads and grilled dishes, with a choice of vegetarian, vegan and low-carb meals.
