Park and Pools

Park

- The hotel is surrounded by a park that hosts two thermal pools; the water in the pools varies in temperature from season to season. The thermal water used at the spa springs right inside the hotel grounds.

Pools

Abano Terme's thermal water contains a unique combination of mineral salts, iodine, and bromine that is found nowhere else in the world, and that features precious anti-inflammatory properties.

- Poseidon Pool

This pool is situated in the open air, surrounded by exotic flora, and linked to an indoor pool. It is interlinked with indoor pool and has a water temperature that oscillates between 33°C and 35°C (91°F and 95°F), depending on the season. The pool offers whirlpool jets, a health walk, water jets meant for neck and shoulder massage, and a separate area dedicated to relaxation.

- Venera Pool

This pool is located outdoors in our park. The water temperature of the pool is a bit cooler, varying between 26°C and 30°C (79°F and 86°F), depending on the season.

- Aphrodite Pool

This covered thermal pool, located inside the hotel, is connected to the Poseidon Pool outdoors. The water temperature varies between 33°C and 36°C (91°F and 97°F), depending on the season, making it perfect even in winter. One section of the pool features a Kneipp walk with invigorating hot/cold cycles for healthier legs.

Detox Thermal Spa

- Spa specializes in thermal detox treatments: the thermal mud of Abano Terme makes this spa the perfect place for getting rid of any built-up toxins and stress. The first step is always a visit with the Spa's medical team, which will customize your detox program to match your individual needs.
- The Spa's beauty treatments, too, start with customization: spa consultant will help you choose every detail of your treatment in advance to ensure your full satisfaction.
