- Location

Nestled in the Indian Ocean as part of an archipelago, Seychelles adorns the outer Amirante Islands, celebrated for their unspoilt coral atolls unblemished by human interference. Positioned about 1,600 kilometres (1,000 miles) off the east coast of Africa, Seychelles is a sanctuary of natural beauty. A short 35-minute flight southwest from Mahé, the primary island of Seychelles, brings you to the exclusive Four Seasons resort on Desroches, the only retreat on this remote island. Here, absolute privacy and exclusive luxury are assured. Desroches spans over 402 hectares, with 14 kilometres of untouched, white-sand beaches, offering a personal playground that evokes the feeling of discovering one's own private tropical paradise.

Weddings & Honeymoons

- Couples may affirm their commitment on the ivory coastlines of remote Desroches Island—a charming coral isle nestled in the midst of the Indian Ocean. This six-kilometre tropical haven presents all the requisites for an indelible day, guaranteeing an unforgettable experience for both the couple and their attendees.
- In this private retreat, couples can make a promise of eternal love in an intimate beach ceremony, where the soothing sound of waves combines perfectly with their words. Friends and relatives gather around them in a chic villa to dance together while the tropical breeze rustles through the plants in the garden. This picturesque island location guarantees an unforgettable wedding day for the couple.
- For their wedding night, newlyweds can escape to one of the charming cottages or suites available. They can pamper themselves with spa treatments for couples and romantic dinners by the shore before travelling to another Four Seasons location. Alternatively, they can opt to remain on Desroches Island, enabling the resort to create an unforgettable experience during their stay in this captivating destination.
