At the Sunset Bar on West Beach, guests are treated to an array of freshly made, hot pizzas from the authentic Italian oven, along with a selection of salads and tapas-style barbecue snacks, perfect for sharing while watching the mesmerising sunset. Take the opportunity to relax, kick off your shoes and feel the sand between your toes as you experience the more unpolished side of the North Island, providing a delightful contrast to the sophisticated Piazza.

This setting encourages guests to take their time and savour the moment, enjoying the expertise of the mixologist who can create a B.O.B. Mojito - a unique North Island twist on the classic cocktail, using locally grown passion fruit, fresh mint and a hint of small bitter local oranges, originally planted on the island centuries ago by pirates seeking a safe haven for their ill-gotten treasures.
