Food & Beverage

Restaurants

- Seyshima

The concept of a floating restaurant situated over a serene lagoon, offering an exquisite array of sushi, undoubtedly attracts both sushi aficionados and those in search of a noteworthy dining venture. The fusion of Asian elegance amidst the Seychelles' backdrop fosters a cultural affluence and culinary superiority. The Seyshima cocktail, served as the resort's initial drink, could be a gratifying and invigorating accompaniment to your meal, giving visitors the opportunity to bask in a distinctive and carefully tailored cocktail that showcases the heart of the resort.

- Eden

As one of Seychelles' finest dining establishments, Eden's commitment to delivering an unforgettable and flavourful gastronomic adventure is illustrated by their specialisation in Creole-inspired delicacies, specifically featuring fresh seafood and premium cuts of BBQ meat. The emphasis on locally sourced ingredients and the employment of conventional culinary methods certainly enhance the dining experience's authenticity and intensity.

- Trader Vic's

Trader Vic's appears to be an outstanding venue for dining and entertainment, demonstrated by its inclusion in the TripAdvisor Top 10 Restaurants in Mahe. Its reputation as a globally recognised restaurant and bar attests to its popularity amongst both local residents and tourists. The fascinating and foreign atmosphere, enhanced by ancient and worldly artifacts, is sure to add to the immersive and captivating dining experience that Trader Vic's provides. Guests can revel in not only a scrumptious meal, but also a vibrant setting, complete with the melodious tunes of Cuban music on most evenings, whether seated within the spectacular interior or on the terrace that overlooks the lagoon.

- Vascos

Vascos restaurant seems to be a fitting homage to the Portuguese explorer and the historical importance of his Seychelles expedition. Its open-air, contemporary design offers diners a pleasant and welcoming ambience to relish their meals. The restaurant offers indoor and outdoor seating options to accommodate different preferences, allowing guests to enjoy their dining experience according to their taste. The presence of international and Creole cuisines in the buffet and live stations highlights the diverse and flavoursome variety of dishes that celebrate local and global culinary traditions.

Bars
